

RAMPA RAMMOPO

Chief Executive Officer – Lanseria International Airport

Rampa Rammopo has, since 2017, served on the Commercial Aviation Association of Southern Africa (CAASA) board and, in 2023, was appointed as chairman of the finance committee, where he supports and assists the association on all financial matters. Added to this is his role as the Affiliate President of the Association of Airports and Aerodromes Southern Africa (AAA-SA).

He currently serves as the CEO of Lanseria International Airport and is responsible for the overall leadership, strategic direction, business development, a project and executive management of the airport.

Rampa previously served as the Chief Investment Officer of Nozala Investments Proprietary Limited from 2004 to 2014, overseeing and managing all aspects of the company's investments and financial management operations. At Nozala, he served on the board of directors of the entity's portfolio companies.

Before joining Nozala, he worked as an investment manager at AMB Private Equity Partners Limited and First Corp Capital Investors Limited (now Ethos Private Equity), where he was involved in private equity investment sourcing, acquisitions, monitoring and divestitures.

Rampa has over 29 years of experience in investment banking (5), private equity (13) and aviation services (11).

Mr Rammopo holds a Bachelor of Accounting Science (Honours) from the University of South Africa and a Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting from the University of Witwatersrand. He is a qualified chartered accountant and a member of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA) and the Institute of Directors Southern Africa (IoDSA).

